Vision – 'To serve with high quality education for development of students as competent pharmacy professionals for the upliftment of socio-economic status in rural areas'

2.2.1 The institution assesses students' learning levels and organizes special programs for advanced and slow learners. This is achieved through:

- Performance in unit tests and semester exams
- Continuous monitoring via the mentoring system
- Student-teacher interactions

Support for Slow Learners:

- Conducting tutorial and remedial classes
- Orientation lectures before exams
- Seminars, group discussions, and assignments
- Special counseling sessions and workshops for underperformers
- Addressing issues through mentoring sessions

Motivation for Advanced Learners:

- Encouragement for competitive exams and higher studies
- Participation in research projects and poster competitions
- Guidance from senior faculty and mentors

General Activities for All Students:

- Alumni interactions
- Assigning seminars/projects
- Career and competitive exam guidance
- Guest lectures, seminars, and skill-development workshops
- Hands-on training with advanced instruments, equipment, and software
- Motivation to pursue add-on courses offered by the institute

The effectiveness of these efforts is continuously monitored by mentors through mentoring sessions, with records maintained in mentoring booklets. Academic performance and outcomes are periodically reviewed by the academic/program committee to ensure students' needs are met effectively.
