Day & Date of event	16/10/2023.
Time	2:30 pm onward
Venue	Pharmacy Classroom
Name of Coordinator	Prof Arpit Rajaram Suralkar
Number of Participant	Students :- 43 Staff :- 24

Detail of activity

The organization conducts annual awareness programmes to reinforce the importance of the Code of Conduct among its employees. These programmes are organized to ensure that all staff members understand their ethical responsibilities and the expected standards of behavior. The events include workshops, seminars, and interactive sessions led by senior management and external experts. Participants are educated on key principles such as integrity, accountability, confidentiality, and compliance with legal and organizational policies.

The sessions also highlight the consequences of violations and the processes in place for reporting misconduct. The awareness programmes are mandatory for all employees, ensuring uniform knowledge across departments. The training sessions are designed to be engaging, incorporating case studies, role-playing, and real-world examples.

Feedback is actively sought from participants to improve future sessions, and follow-up assessments are conducted to gauge understanding. Additionally, employees are provided with written materials, such as handbooks and guidelines, to reinforce the training. These programmes play a vital role in promoting a culture of ethical behavior within the organization. The annual initiative has proven successful in reducing ethical breaches and fostering a more transparent workplace environment. Furthermore, the organization remains committed to providing ongoing support and resources to maintain the highest standards of conduct.
