Journal Club Presentation Policy
For M. Pharmacy Semester IV Students

1. Objective:

The Journal Club aims to enhance students' ability to critically analyze scientific literature, improve presentation skills, and keep them updated with recent advancements in pharmaceutical sciences.

2. Applicability:

This policy is applicable to all M. Pharmacy Semester IV students of the institute.

3. Frequency and Schedule:

- Each student must deliver at least one Journal Club presentation during the semester.
- The schedule will be prepared by the department and strictly followed.
- Presentations will be conducted in the presence of faculty members and peers.

4. Selection of Research Article:

- Students must select recent research articles (preferably within last 5 years) from reputed peer-reviewed journals.
- The article must be approved by the guide prior to presentation.
- Use of non-authentic sources or plagiarism is strictly prohibited.

5. Presentation Guidelines:

- Duration: 30–40 minutes presentation + 10–15 minutes discussion
- The presentation should cover:
 - Introduction and background
 - Objectives of the study
 - Methodology
 - Results and discussion
 - Critical analysis
 - Conclusion and future scope
- Use of PowerPoint (PPT) is mandatory.
- Presentation of all courses students will be conducted together.

6. Attendance:

- Attendance is compulsory for all Semester IV students.
- Failure to deliver the Journal Club presentation as per the schedule will result in the student being marked as 'Absent' in the University mark sheet.
